School Communities Hold Food Drive

For the third year, Ballantyne Families Helping Neighbors In Need will provide Thanksgiving and December holiday meals to families in need who have been identified by school counselors in the nine schools feeding into Ardrey Kell High School. With the help of Ardrey Kell's Student Government Association and several other Ballantyne schools, this organization will collect food and gift cards. Details and how to help: linktr.ee/ballantynefamilies.

Race in Your Pajamas Halloween Weekend

The Move for Jenn Foundation will hold its signature Pajamas All Day 5K/10K on Saturday, Oct. 29, at Blakeney Professional Park. This year's "Spooky

Edition" of the race will have a DJ, a sponsor expo, food vendors, a children's fun run, a petting zoo, a DIY booth, adult beverages (including the organization's Hops on One Leg NE IPA), raffles and surprises. Details and registration: moveforjenn.org/pages/pjsallday2022.

Supporting Ovarian Cancer Patients

During September, Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month, Ballantyne Ball and its charity partner of the year, SherryStrong, are raising funds for local women facing a diagnosis. The month-long campaign will support the development and distribution of SherryStrong Chemo Boxes ($35), which include activity and comfort items for newly diagnosed patients beginning chemotherapy. ## Annual Festival Supports Log Cabin

The Lower Providence Community House Ladies Club will hold its fall festival on Saturday, Sept. 24, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This year's event will feature its award-winning barbecue lunch, a bake sale, local vendors displaying their crafts, a petting zoo, a bounce house, face painting and an ice cream truck. All proceeds benefit the preservation and restoration of this historic log cabin (est. 1938) located at 9735 Community House Rd. Details: lpchlogcabin.weebly.com.
